County Misses Quota By 3 Pints

At the third visit of the fiscal year of the Red Cross Bloodmobile in Appomattox on Tuesday, January 23rd, the quota set for this visit was short of the goal by only 3 units of blood. This was felt to be a very successful visit as many of the citizens of our county have been plagued with the flu and other illnesses.

On January 23rd, Gertrude Jarrell received a two-gallon donor pin; one-gallon pins went to Rachel B. Childress, Amy E. Nash, Elantha M. Drinkard and William Shorter; and first time donors were Tony Clifton, John F. Marshall, Jean LeGrand, William Houchens, Ora McCoy, Lee Conner and Karen Cabaniss.

The chairmen of the blood program for Appomattox County would like to express gratitude to the donors for making this visit a success. Thanks go also to Kings Market, Pepsi Cola Bottling

PARENT DISCUSSION GROUPS AT AIS

There will be an organizational meeting for parents of 7th, 8th, or 9th grade pupils who wish to start discussion groups on understanding adolescents Tuesday night, February 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the Appomattox Intermediate School library. The meeting will be under the direction of Mrs. Bolling Carter, counselor of 8th and 9th grade pupils at AIS. Mrs. Carter invites all parents who are interested in participating in some group discussions on understanding teenagers to attend this meeting. Mrs. Carter plans to form groups of not more than fifteen parents to meet for three or four times on Tuesday evenings or during school hours to discuss together various concerns parents encounter in dealing with their teenage children. The parents themselves will decide what topics to discuss at each session.

The purpose of the discussion groups is to talk about the common concerns that confront all parents of normal children growing up in our world today. Ideas will be shared with each other that may make the adolescent years more agreeable and pleasant for both parents and children.

If you are interested, Mrs. Carter urges you to be present on Tuesday night to formulate further plans for future sessions. If you wish further information, you may contact the counselor in the guidance office. (Phone 382-8871)

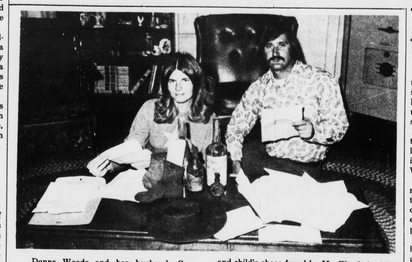
New Money To Flow Into Local Area



Donna Woods and her husband, Gary Woods, of Route 1, Appomattox look over some very old papers, bottles, child's hat and child's shoes found by Mr. Woods in the ceiling of an old house being torn down in Lynchburg.

Finds Collection of Papers Dated 1819 Through 1838

Gary Woods of Appomattox, an employe of Trevey's Asphalt and Paving Company, Lynchburg, found a "stack" of old letters, bank notes, newspapers, bottles, child's hat and shoes and other old items last week. The papers and other valuable items were found in the ceiling of an old house located at 616 Main Street, Lynchburg, which is one of those being torn down in the 600 block of Main and Church Streets to make way for a parking lot.

It takes a long time to look over all the papers Woods found but the oldest one so far dates back to the 27th day of January 1819 and the latest one dates to 1838, definitely pre Civil War times.

In the collection found last week, at least 100 pieces of mail or papers of one kind or another were found by Gary Woods.

He is quite pleased with the finding of these papers as he and wife, "Donna" have a hobby of collecting old "things."

They have quite a collection of old bottles, and a rare collection of old coins and Civil War bullets.

In his type of work, Gary has found lots of old things at one time or another but this is definitely the most he has ever found at one time.

The oldest paper w= came

Tax Refunds May Total $323,000

New York - For the Appomattox County economy, all systems are "go" for 1973. Everything points to an upsurge in local consumer spending in the months ahead.

One basis for the forecast is the extra amount of cash that local residents will be collecting in the form of checks from Washington.

The chief windfall will be the rebates that will be made to those who overpaid their income taxes last year because of excessive withholding from the paychecks.

Nationally, no less than $7 billion in such refunds will be going to about 40 million taxpayers during the next few months, the Treasury Department estimates.

The tax refunds to residents of Appomattox County will add up to approximately $323,000 it is calculated, based upon the official figures. The reimbursements will go to some 1,850 people in the local area. They will average nearly $175 per recipient.

More money will be going, also, to those who are on government payrolls, including the military. They will share in a pay hike of $2.3 billion.

In addition, local residents will share in an extra $2 billion that will be distributed through social security, on top of the 20 percent increase that went into effect in September, to certain widows, widowers, disabled persons and others.

Offsetting this somewhat are the bigger payroll taxes that became operative at the beginning of this year.

All in all, however, the nation's consumers will have nearly $11 billion more from these three sources alone.

Assuming that Appomattox County gets a proportionate share of it, there will be approximately $508,000 more available to local residents.

With the public in more of a spending mood than in a long time, it is expected that this money will soon be reaching the cash registers of retail stores in the area.

For the national economy as a whole, the forecast is for strong growth in 1973. "It will be fast, cyclical and speculative," according the The Conference Board, "but the problem of controlling inflation may grow more acute."

County Education Association Presents Salary Proposal

The Appomattox County Education Association presented its 1973-74 Salary Proposal to the Appomattox County School Board at the board's January meeting.

Frank Coffey, Chairman of the ACEA salary committee, presented a several page report which included not only the proposed salary scale, but also several indications of why teachers need the requested increase.

It was pointed out that Appomattox County teachers' salaries have consistently fallen behind other counties in the state in recent years and now ranks 118 out of 130 school divisions and is the lowest salaried county in the district of surrounding counties.

But to bring things closer to home a few businesses in the area which have similar or lesser employment conditions and requirements were surveyed. This information showed that although starting salaries were close that after five years of service a teacher's increase insalary was less than half that of the other employers.

The proposal also contained a breakdown of the salary of a first year teacher and a teacher with five years experience.

It was shown here that after income taxes, social security, retirement fund and health insurance deductions and with a payment made for housing, food,clothes, and transportation that the five year teacher
